

Verizon Wireless should be forbidden from entering into its anti competitive marketing agreements with the big cable companies that would result in the fixed broadband market an already anti competitive duopoly becoming even less competitive by removing Verizon Communications in certain markets from competing with the cable companies – resulting in the broadband market becoming a cable monopoly.